

A New Approach on Violence in Jamaica

Author: Elroy A. Douglas
Department of IPED
University of Bridgeport, Bridgeport, CT

Breaking the Cycle of Violence:

Christopher Coke, he was extradited to the USA in 2009, for drugs and guns trafficking. He was a notorious gang leader.

The government must Focus on the youth through education.

Poverty and Unemployment caused by: many untrained, uneducated, and unqualified people in the country.

The Issue: government should pay special attention to these problems to eliminate the people of Jamaica from gravitating to violence.

The Purpose: is to new ways to approach violence in Jamaica.